GET CLOSE TO NATURE

at Martin Mere Wetland Centre

"Visited Martin Mere as a party of 12 with ages ranging from 2 to 65 and all of us had a thoroughly great day out. It is amazing to get up and so close to the flamingos and other animals throughout the park."

WEIRD OR WONDERFUL AREA

For a feathery mix of extraordinary bird shapes, sights and sounds, be sure to visit our WOW zone. Expect some of the weirdest and most wonderful wetland birds such as Crowned Cranes, Cape Barren Geese and Avocets.

FABULOUS FLAMINGOS

Tickle yourself pink on a date with our all-star cast of pretty Greater and Chilean flamingos. Come along and hear the facts behind their pink feathers.

WOBBLY WILD WALK

With a wobbly bridge, muddy meadows, a reedy ramble, and plenty of beauty spots for peace and quiet, our mile-long Wild Walk has discoveries for everyone.

RECORD BREAKING BUGS

Wonder at the world's biggest bug hotel (a Guinness World Record holder!) standing at a whopping 18.46 cubic metres and discover further surprises in Wild Walk.

FEATHERED FEEDING TIME

With seed in your hand and a group of ducks, geese and flamingos at your feet, giggles of delight are inevitable.

WHITE STORKS

Be amazed by the sight and sound of our group of white storks - particularly at the daily 2pm feed where there's a lot of noisy bill-clattering!

GORGEOUS GIFTS AND YUMMY TREATS

Enjoy hot and cold homemade lunches, freshly-brewed teas and coffees, and delicious cakes overlooking Swan Lake in our Mere Side café. In our shop we've gorgeous gifts, books and toys for you – and every penny you spend in our shop and café goes to support our vital conservation work.
