

Colour hunt

Now that you have practised learning your colours, I want you to go around your house looking for items that are the colours given below. Use a scrap piece of paper to write a label in French for each of your colour items. Take 1 photo with all of your items with their labels and email it to us please.

