

How to describe a setting.

Your aim is to create a picture in your reader's head so they can imagine it.

Try to include:

SENSES DESCRIPTION: What the person in the writing can see, hear, feel, smell and sometimes taste.

SIMILES: Where you compare something to something else like it to put a clear picture in reader's head.

Different SENTENCE STARTS: this stops it sounding repetitive and stilted. These are your Fronted adverbials for where, eg In the distance, Far beyond the...

when, eg Suddenly, At sunrise, As time passed,

how eg Gingerly, Silently, Sneakily, Cautiously

Extended noun phrases to give the reader detail, eg a lonely zebra, with

Acacia Trees

African Veld animals:

leopards, lions, rhinos,
elephants, wildebeest,
hyenas, zebras

Avocados

grapefruit

Savanna

zebras

passion fruit

Kopje

Impala